

Dear year 6

At the start of the year everyone will be getting used to the building and new friends. Some people might come alone from a different school so try to make a conversation with them so they don't feel lonely.

At the start of the year people will be with their friends from primary. But never be shy to go and talk to them because you never know they could be your best friends in about a week!

Good luck and enjoy year 7 !!!